ANNEX
INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION FOR THE PROTECTION OF ALL PERSONS FROM ENFORCED DISAPPEARANCE

PREAMBLE

The States Parties to this Convention,

Considering the obligation of States under the Charter of the United Nations to promote universal respect for, and observance of, human rights and fundamental freedoms,

Having regard to the Universal Declaration of Human Rights,

Recalling the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the other relevant international instruments in the fields of human rights, humanitarian law and international criminal law,

Also recalling the Declaration on the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance adopted by the General Assembly of the United Nations in its resolution 47/133 of 18 December 1992,

Aware of the extreme seriousness of enforced disappearance, which constitutes a crime and, in certain circumstances defined in international law, a crime against humanity,

Determined to prevent enforced disappearances and to combat impunity for the crime of enforced disappearance,

Considering the right of any person not to be subjected to enforced disappearance, the right of victims to justice and to reparation,

Affirming the right of any victim to know the truth about the circumstances of an enforced disappearance and the fate of the disappeared person, and the right to freedom to seek, receive and impart information to this end,

Have agreed on the following articles:

PART I

Article 1

1. No one shall be subjected to enforced disappearance.
2. No exceptional circumstances whatsoever, whether a state of war or a threat of war, internal political instability or any other public emergency, may be invoked as a justification for enforced disappearance.

Article 2

For the purposes of this Convention, “enforced disappearance” is considered to be the arrest, detention, abduction or any other form of deprivation of liberty by agents of the State or by persons or groups of persons acting with the authorization, support or acquiescence of the State, followed by a refusal to acknowledge the deprivation of liberty or by concealment of the fate or whereabouts of the disappeared person, which places such a person outside the protection of the law.

Article 3

Each State Party shall take appropriate measures to investigate acts defined in article 2 committed by persons or groups of persons acting without the authorization, support or acquiescence of the State and to bring those responsible to justice.

Article 4

Each State Party shall take the necessary measures to ensure that enforced disappearance constitutes an offence under its criminal law.

Article 5

The widespread or systematic practice of enforced disappearance constitutes a crime against humanity as defined in applicable international law and shall attract the consequences provided for under such applicable international law.

Article 6

1. Each State Party shall take the necessary measures to hold criminally responsible at least:

(a) Any person who commits, orders, solicits or induces the commission of, attempts to commit, is an accomplice to or participates in an enforced disappearance;

(b) A superior who:

(i) Knew, or consciously disregarded information which clearly indicated, that subordinates under his or her effective authority and control were committing or about to commit a crime of enforced disappearance;

(ii) Exercised effective responsibility for and control over activities which were concerned with the crime of enforced disappearance; and

(iii) Failed to take all necessary and reasonable measures within his or her power to prevent or repress the commission of an enforced disappearance or to submit the matter to the competent authorities for investigation and prosecution;

(c) Subparagraph (b) above is without prejudice to the higher standards of responsibility applicable under relevant international law to a military commander or to a person effectively acting as a military commander.

2. No order or instruction from any public authority, civilian, military or other, may be invoked to justify an offence of enforced disappearance.

Article 7

1. Each State Party shall make the offence of enforced disappearance punishable by appropriate penalties which take into account its extreme seriousness.

2. Each State Party may establish:

(a) Mitigating circumstances, in particular for persons who, having been implicated in the commission of an enforced disappearance, effectively contribute to bringing the disappeared person forward alive or make it possible to clarify cases of enforced disappearance or to identify the perpetrators of an enforced disappearance;

(b) Without prejudice to other criminal procedures, aggravating circumstances, in particular in the event of the death of the disappeared person or the commission of an enforced disappearance in respect of pregnant women, minors, persons with disabilities or other particularly vulnerable persons.

Article 8

Without prejudice to article 5,

1. A State Party which applies a statute of limitations in respect of enforced disappearance shall take the necessary measures to ensure that the term of limitation for criminal proceedings:

(a) Is of long duration and is proportionate to the extreme seriousness of this offence;

(b) Commences from the moment when the offence of enforced disappearance ceases, taking into account its continuous nature.

2. Each State Party shall guarantee the right of victims of enforced disappearance to an effective remedy during the term of limitation.

Article 9

1. Each State Party shall take the necessary measures to establish its competence to exercise jurisdiction over the offence of enforced disappearance:

(a) When the offence is committed in any territory under its jurisdiction or on board a ship or aircraft registered in that State;

(b) When the alleged offender is one of its nationals;

(c) When the disappeared person is one of its nationals and the State Party considers it appropriate.

2. Each State Party shall likewise take such measures as may be necessary to establish its competence to exercise jurisdiction over the offence of enforced disappearance when the alleged offender is present in any territory under its jurisdiction, unless it extradites or surrenders him or her to another State in accordance with its international obligations or surrenders him or her to an international criminal tribunal whose jurisdiction it has recognized.

3. This Convention does not exclude any additional criminal jurisdiction exercised in accordance with national law.

Article 10

1. Upon being satisfied, after an examination of the information available to it, that the circumstances so warrant, any State Party in whose territory a person suspected of having committed an offence of enforced disappearance is present shall take him or her into custody or take such other legal measures as are necessary to ensure his or her presence. The custody and other legal measures shall be as provided for in the law of that State Party but may be maintained only for such time as is necessary to ensure the person's presence at criminal, surrender or extradition proceedings.

2. A State Party which has taken the measures referred to in paragraph 1 of this article shall immediately carry out a preliminary inquiry or investigations to establish the facts. It shall notify the States Parties referred to in article 9, paragraph 1, of the measures it has taken in pursuance of paragraph 1 of this article, including detention and the circumstances warranting detention, and of the findings of its preliminary inquiry or its investigations, indicating whether it intends to exercise its jurisdiction.

3. Any person in custody pursuant to paragraph 1 of this article may communicate immediately with the nearest appropriate representative of the State of which he or she is a national, or, if he or she is a stateless person, with the representative of the State where he or she usually resides.

Article 11

1. The State Party in the territory under whose jurisdiction a person alleged to have committed an offence of enforced disappearance is found shall, if it does not extradite that person or surrender him or her to another State in accordance with its international obligations or surrender him or her to an international criminal tribunal whose jurisdiction it has recognized, submit the case to its competent authorities for the purpose of prosecution.

2. These authorities shall take their decision in the same manner as in the case of any ordinary offence of a serious nature under the law of that State Party. In the cases referred to in article 9, paragraph 2, the standards of evidence required for prosecution and conviction shall in no way be less stringent than those which apply in the cases referred to in article 9, paragraph 1.

3. Any person against whom proceedings are brought in connection with an offence of enforced disappearance shall be guaranteed fair treatment at all stages of the proceedings. Any person tried for an offence of enforced disappearance shall benefit from a fair trial before a competent, independent and impartial court or tribunal established by law.

Article 12

1. Each State Party shall ensure that any individual who alleges that a person has been subjected to enforced disappearance has the right to report the facts to the competent authorities, which shall examine the allegation promptly and impartially and, where necessary, undertake without delay a thorough and impartial investigation. Appropriate steps shall be taken, where necessary, to ensure that the complainant, witnesses, relatives of the disappeared person and their defence counsel, as well as persons participating in the investigation, are protected against all ill-treatment or intimidation as a consequence of the complaint or any evidence given.

2. Where there are reasonable grounds for believing that a person has been subjected to enforced disappearance, the authorities referred to in paragraph 1 of this article shall undertake an investigation, even if there has been no formal complaint.

3. Each State Party shall ensure that the authorities referred to in paragraph 1 of this article:

(a) Have the necessary powers and resources to conduct the investigation effectively, including access to the documentation and other information relevant to their investigation;

(b) Have access, if necessary with the prior authorization of a judicial authority, which shall rule promptly on the matter, to any place of detention or any other place where there are reasonable grounds to believe that the disappeared person may be present.

4. Each State Party shall take the necessary measures to prevent and sanction acts that hinder the conduct of an investigation. It shall ensure in particular that persons suspected of having committed an offence of enforced disappearance are not in a position to influence the progress of an investigation by means of pressure or acts of intimidation or reprisal aimed at the complainant, witnesses, relatives of the disappeared person or their defence counsel, or at persons participating in the investigation.

Article 13

1. For the purposes of extradition between States Parties, the offence of enforced disappearance shall not be regarded as a political offence or as an offence connected with a political offence or as an offence inspired by political motives. Accordingly, a request for extradition based on such an offence may not be refused on these grounds alone.

2. The offence of enforced disappearance shall be deemed to be included as an extraditable offence in any extradition treaty existing between States Parties before the entry into force of this Convention.

3. States Parties undertake to include the offence of enforced disappearance as an extraditable offence in any extradition treaty subsequently to be concluded between them.

4. If a State Party which makes extradition conditional on the existence of a treaty receives a request for extradition from another State Party with which it has no extradition treaty, it may consider this Convention as the necessary legal basis for extradition in respect of the offence of enforced disappearance.

5. States Parties which do not make extradition conditional on the existence of a treaty shall recognize the offence of enforced disappearance as an extraditable offence between themselves.

6. Extradition shall, in all cases, be subject to the conditions provided for by the law of the requested State Party or by applicable extradition treaties, including, in particular, conditions relating to the minimum penalty requirement for extradition and the grounds upon which the requested State Party may refuse extradition or make it subject to certain conditions.

7. Nothing in this Convention shall be interpreted as imposing an obligation to extradite if the requested State Party has substantial grounds for believing that the request has been made for the purpose of prosecuting or punishing a person on account of that person's sex, race, religion, nationality, ethnic origin, political opinions or membership of a particular social group, or that compliance with the request would cause harm to that person for any one of these reasons.

Article 14

1. States Parties shall afford one another the greatest measure of mutual legal assistance in connection with criminal proceedings brought in respect of an offence of enforced disappearance, including the supply of all evidence at their disposal that is necessary for the proceedings.

2. Such mutual legal assistance shall be subject to the conditions provided for by the domestic law of the requested State Party or by applicable treaties on mutual legal assistance, including, in particular, the conditions in relation to the grounds upon which the requested State Party may refuse to grant mutual legal assistance or may make it subject to conditions.

Article 15

States Parties shall cooperate with each other and shall afford one another the greatest measure of mutual assistance with a view to assisting victims of enforced disappearance, and in searching for, locating and releasing disappeared persons and, in the event of death, in exhuming and identifying them and returning their remains.

Article 16

1. No State Party shall expel, return ("refouler"), surrender or extradite a person to another State where there are substantial grounds for believing that he or she would be in danger of being subjected to enforced disappearance.

2. For the purpose of determining whether there are such grounds, the competent authorities shall take into account all relevant considerations, including, where applicable, the existence in the State concerned of a consistent pattern of gross, flagrant or mass violations of human rights or of serious violations of international humanitarian law.

Article 17

1. No one shall be held in secret detention.

2. Without prejudice to other international obligations of the State Party with regard to the deprivation of liberty, each State Party shall, in its legislation:

(a) Establish the conditions under which orders of deprivation of liberty may be given;

- (b) Indicate those authorities authorized to order the deprivation of liberty;
 - (c) Guarantee that any person deprived of liberty shall be held solely in officially recognized and supervised places of deprivation of liberty;
 - (d) Guarantee that any person deprived of liberty shall be authorized to communicate with and be visited by his or her family, counsel or any other person of his or her choice, subject only to the conditions established by law, or, if he or she is a foreigner, to communicate with his or her consular authorities, in accordance with applicable international law;
 - (e) Guarantee access by the competent and legally authorized authorities and institutions to the places where persons are deprived of liberty, if necessary with prior authorization from a judicial authority;
 - (f) Guarantee that any person deprived of liberty or, in the case of a suspected enforced disappearance, since the person deprived of liberty is not able to exercise this right, any persons with a legitimate interest, such as relatives of the person deprived of liberty, their representatives or their counsel, shall, in all circumstances, be entitled to take proceedings before a court, in order that the court may decide without delay on the lawfulness of the deprivation of liberty and order the person's release if such deprivation of liberty is not lawful.
3. Each State Party shall assure the compilation and maintenance of one or more up-to-date official registers and/or records of persons deprived of liberty, which shall be made promptly available, upon request, to any judicial or other competent authority or institution authorized for that purpose by the law of the State Party concerned or any relevant international legal instrument to which the State concerned is a party. The information contained therein shall include, as a minimum:
- (a) The identity of the person deprived of liberty;
 - (b) The date, time and place where the person was deprived of liberty and the identity of the authority that deprived the person of liberty;
 - (c) The authority that ordered the deprivation of liberty and the grounds for the deprivation of liberty;
 - (d) The authority responsible for supervising the deprivation of liberty;
 - (e) The place of deprivation of liberty, the date and time of admission to the place of deprivation of liberty and the authority responsible for the place of deprivation of liberty;
 - (f) Elements relating to the state of health of the person deprived of liberty;
 - (g) In the event of death during the deprivation of liberty, the circumstances and cause of death and the destination of the remains;
 - (h) The date and time of release or transfer to another place of detention, the destination and the authority responsible for the transfer.

Article 18

1. Subject to articles 19 and 20, each State Party shall guarantee to any person with a legitimate interest in this information, such as relatives of the person deprived of liberty, their representatives or their counsel, access to at least the following information:
- (a) The authority that ordered the deprivation of liberty;
 - (b) The date, time and place where the person was deprived of liberty and admitted to the place of deprivation of liberty;
 - (c) The authority responsible for supervising the deprivation of liberty;

(d) The whereabouts of the person deprived of liberty, including, in the event of a transfer to another place of deprivation of liberty, the destination and the authority responsible for the transfer;

(e) The date, time and place of release;

(f) Elements relating to the state of health of the person deprived of liberty;

(g) In the event of death during the deprivation of liberty, the circumstances and cause of death and the destination of the remains.

2. Appropriate measures shall be taken, where necessary, to protect the persons referred to in paragraph 1 of this article, as well as persons participating in the investigation, from any ill-treatment, intimidation or sanction as a result of the search for information concerning a person deprived of liberty.

Article 19

1. Personal information, including medical and genetic data, which is collected and/or transmitted within the framework of the search for a disappeared person shall not be used or made available for purposes other than the search for the disappeared person. This is without prejudice to the use of such information in criminal proceedings relating to an offence of enforced disappearance or the exercise of the right to obtain reparation.

2. The collection, processing, use and storage of personal information, including medical and genetic data, shall not infringe or have the effect of infringing the human rights, fundamental freedoms or human dignity of an individual.

Article 20

1. Only where a person is under the protection of the law and the deprivation of liberty is subject to judicial control may the right to information referred to in article 18 be restricted, on an exceptional basis, where strictly necessary and where provided for by law, and if the transmission of the information would adversely affect the privacy or safety of the person, hinder a criminal investigation, or for other equivalent reasons in accordance with the law, and in conformity with applicable international law and with the objectives of this Convention. In no case shall there be restrictions on the right to information referred to in article 18 that could constitute conduct defined in article 2 or be in violation of article 17, paragraph 1.

2. Without prejudice to consideration of the lawfulness of the deprivation of a person's liberty, States Parties shall guarantee to the persons referred to in article 18, paragraph 1, the right to a prompt and effective judicial remedy as a means of obtaining without delay the information referred to in article 18, paragraph 1. This right to a remedy may not be suspended or restricted in any circumstances.

Article 21

Each State Party shall take the necessary measures to ensure that persons deprived of liberty are released in a manner permitting reliable verification that they have actually been released. Each State Party shall also take the necessary measures to assure the physical integrity of such persons and their ability to exercise fully their rights at the time of release, without prejudice to any obligations to which such persons may be subject under national law.

Article 22

Without prejudice to article 6, each State Party shall take the necessary measures to prevent and impose sanctions for the following conduct:

(a) Delaying or obstructing the remedies referred to in article 17, paragraph 2 (f), and article 20, paragraph 2;

(b) Failure to record the deprivation of liberty of any person, or the recording of any information which the official responsible for the official register knew or should have known to be inaccurate;

(c) Refusal to provide information on the deprivation of liberty of a person, or the provision of inaccurate information, even though the legal requirements for providing such information have been met.

Article 23

1. Each State Party shall ensure that the training of law enforcement personnel, civil or military, medical personnel, public officials and other persons who may be involved in the custody or treatment of any person deprived of liberty includes the necessary education and information regarding the relevant provisions of this Convention, in order to:

- (a) Prevent the involvement of such officials in enforced disappearances;
- (b) Emphasize the importance of prevention and investigations in relation to enforced disappearances;
- (c) Ensure that the urgent need to resolve cases of enforced disappearance is recognized.

2. Each State Party shall ensure that orders or instructions prescribing, authorizing or encouraging enforced disappearance are prohibited. Each State Party shall guarantee that a person who refuses to obey such an order will not be punished.

3. Each State Party shall take the necessary measures to ensure that the persons referred to in paragraph 1 of this article who have reason to believe that an enforced disappearance has occurred or is planned report the matter to their superiors and, where necessary, to the appropriate authorities or bodies vested with powers of review or remedy.

Article 24

1. For the purposes of this Convention, “victim” means the disappeared person and any individual who has suffered harm as the direct result of an enforced disappearance.

2. Each victim has the right to know the truth regarding the circumstances of the enforced disappearance, the progress and results of the investigation and the fate of the disappeared person. Each State Party shall take appropriate measures in this regard.

3. Each State Party shall take all appropriate measures to search for, locate and release disappeared persons and, in the event of death, to locate, respect and return their remains.

4. Each State Party shall ensure in its legal system that the victims of enforced disappearance have the right to obtain reparation and prompt, fair and adequate compensation.

5. The right to obtain reparation referred to in paragraph 4 of this article covers material and moral damages and, where appropriate, other forms of reparation such as:

- (a) Restitution;
- (b) Rehabilitation;
- (c) Satisfaction, including restoration of dignity and reputation;
- (d) Guarantees of non-repetition.

6. 1. A Committee on Enforced Disappearances (hereinafter referred to as “the Committee”) shall be established to carry out the functions provided for under this Convention. The Committee shall consist of ten experts of high moral character and recognized competence in the field of human rights, who shall serve in their personal capacity and be independent and impartial. The members of the Committee shall be elected by the States Parties according to equitable geographical distribution. Due account shall be taken of the usefulness of the participation in the work of the Committee of persons having relevant legal experience and of balanced gender representation.

2. The members of the Committee shall be elected by secret ballot from a list of persons nominated by States Parties from among their nationals, at biennial meetings of the States Parties convened by the Secretary-General of the United Nations for this purpose. At those meetings, for which two thirds of the States Parties shall constitute a quorum, the persons elected to the Committee shall be those who obtain the largest number of votes and an absolute majority of the votes of the representatives of States Parties present and voting.

3. The initial election shall be held no later than six months after the date of entry into force of this Convention. Four months before the date of each election, the Secretary-General of the United Nations shall address a letter to the States Parties inviting them to submit nominations within three months. The Secretary-General shall prepare a list in alphabetical order of all persons thus nominated, indicating the State Party which nominated each candidate, and shall submit this list to all States Parties.

4. The members of the Committee shall be elected for a term of four years. They shall be eligible for re-election once. However, the term of five of the members elected at the first election shall expire at the end of two years; immediately after the first election, the names of these five members shall be chosen by lot by the chairman of the meeting referred to in paragraph 2 of this article.

5. If a member of the Committee dies or resigns or for any other reason can no longer perform his or her Committee duties, the State Party which nominated him or her shall, in accordance with the criteria set out in paragraph 1 of this article, appoint another candidate from among its nationals to serve out his or her term, subject to the approval of the majority of the States Parties. Such approval shall be considered to have been obtained unless half or more of the States Parties respond negatively within six weeks of having been informed by the Secretary-General of the United Nations of the proposed appointment.

6. The Committee shall establish its own rules of procedure.

7. The Secretary-General of the United Nations shall provide the Committee with the necessary means, staff and facilities for the effective performance of its functions. The Secretary-General of the United Nations shall convene the initial meeting of the Committee.

Article 30

1. A request that a disappeared person should be sought and found may be submitted to the Committee, as a matter of urgency, by relatives of the disappeared person or their legal representatives, their counsel or any person authorized by them, as well as by any other person having a legitimate interest.

2. If the Committee considers that a request for urgent action submitted in pursuance of paragraph 1 of this article:

(a) Is not manifestly unfounded;

(b) Does not constitute an abuse of the right of submission of such requests;

(c) Has already been duly presented to the competent bodies of the State Party concerned, such as those authorized to undertake investigations, where such a possibility exists;

(d) Is not incompatible with the provisions of this Convention; and

(e) The same matter is not being examined under another procedure of international investigation or settlement of the same nature,

4. At any time after the receipt of a communication and before a determination on the merits has been reached, the Committee may transmit to the State Party concerned for its urgent consideration a request that the State Party will take such interim measures as may be necessary to avoid possible irreparable damage to the victims of the alleged violation. Where the Committee exercises its discretion, this does not imply a determination on admissibility or on the merits of the communication.

5. The Committee shall hold closed meetings when examining communications under the present article. It shall inform the author of a communication of the responses provided by the State Party concerned. When the Committee decides to finalize the procedure, it shall communicate its views to the State Party and to the author of the communication.

5. Following its visit, the Committee shall communicate to the State Party concerned its observations and recommendations.

Article 34

If the Committee receives information which appears to it to contain well-founded indications that enforced disappearance is being practised on a widespread or systematic basis in the territory under the jurisdiction of a State Party, it may, after seeking from the State Party concerned all relevant information on the situation, urgently bring the matter to the attention of the General Assembly of the United Nations, through the Secretary-General of the United Nations.

Article 35

ANNEX

UNITED NATIONS DECLARATION ON THE RIGHTS OF INDIGENOUS PEOPLES

The Human Rights Council,

Affirming that indigenous peoples are equal to all other peoples, while recognizing the right of all peoples to be different, to consider themselves different, and to be respected as such,

Affirming also that all peoples contribute to the diversity and richness of civilizations and cultures, which constitute the common heritage of humankind,

Affirming further that all doctrines, policies and practices based on or advocating superiority of peoples or individuals on the basis of national origin, racial, religious, ethnic or cultural differences are racist, scientifically false, legally invalid, morally condemnable and socially unjust,

Reaffirming that indigenous peoples, in the exercise of their rights, should be free from discrimination of any kind,

Concerned that indigenous peoples have suffered from historic injustices as a result of, inter alia, their colonization and dispossession of their lands, territories and resources, thus preventing them from exercising, in particular, their right to development in accordance with their own needs and interests,

Recognizing the urgent need to respect and promote the inherent rights of indigenous peoples which derive from their political, economic and social structures and from their cultures, spiritual traditions, histories and philosophies, especially their rights to their lands, territories and resources,

Recognizing also the urgent need to respect and promote the rights of indigenous peoples affirmed in treaties, agreements and other constructive arrangements with States,

Welcoming the fact that indigenous peoples are organizing themselves for political, economic, social and cultural enhancement and in order to bring an end to all forms of discrimination and oppression wherever they occur,

Convinced that control by indigenous peoples over developments affecting them and their lands, territories and resources will enable them to maintain and strengthen their institutions, cultures and traditions, and to promote their development in accordance with their aspirations and needs,

Recognizing that respect for indigenous knowledge, cultures and traditional practices contributes to sustainable and equitable development and proper management of the environment,

Emphasizing the contribution of the demilitarization of the lands and territories of indigenous peoples to peace, economic and social progress and development, understanding and friendly relations among nations and peoples of the world,

Recognizing in particular the right of indigenous families and communities to retain shared responsibility for the upbringing, training, education and well-being of their children, consistent with the rights of the child,

Recognizing that indigenous peoples have the right freely to determine their relationships with States in a spirit of coexistence, mutual benefit and full respect,

Considering that the rights affirmed in treaties, agreements and constructive arrangements between States and indigenous peoples are, in some situations, matters of international concern, interest, responsibility and character,

Considering also that treaties, agreements and other constructive arrangements, and the relationship they represent, are the basis for a strengthened partnership between indigenous peoples and States,

Acknowledging that the Charter of the United Nations, the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights and the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights affirm the fundamental importance of the right of self-determination of all peoples, by virtue of which they freely determine their political status and freely pursue their economic, social and cultural development,

Bearing in mind that nothing in this Declaration may be used to deny any peoples their right of self-determination, exercised in conformity with international law,

Convinced that the recognition of the rights of indigenous peoples in this Declaration will enhance harmonious and cooperative relations between the State and indigenous peoples, based on principles of justice, democracy, respect for human rights, non-discrimination and good faith,

Encouraging States to comply with and effectively implement all their obligations as they apply to indigenous peoples under international instruments, in particular those related to human rights, in consultation and cooperation with the peoples concerned,

Emphasizing that the United Nations has an important and continuing role to play in promoting and protecting the rights of indigenous peoples,

Believing that this Declaration is a further important step forward for the recognition, promotion and protection of the rights and freedoms of indigenous peoples and in the development of relevant activities of the United Nations system in this field,

Recognizing and reaffirming that indigenous individuals are entitled without discrimination to all human rights recognized in international law, and that indigenous peoples possess collective rights which are indispensable for their existence, well-being and integral development as peoples,

ANNEX III

Administrative and programme budget implications of resolutions and decisions adopted by the Council at its first session, as well as President's statements agreed upon by the Council by consensus at that session

1/1. International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance

1. In paragraphs 1 and 2 of its resolution 1/1, the Council:

(a) Adopted the text of the International Convention on the Protection of all Persons from Enforced Disappearance, as contained in the annex to the resolution; and

(b) Recommended the Convention to the General Assembly for adoption at its sixty-first session.

2. In article 26, paragraph 1, of the Convention, it is stated that a Committee on Enforced Disappearances shall be established to carry out the functions provided for in the Convention. It is also stated that the Committee shall consist of 10 experts of high moral character and recognized competence in the field of human rights, who shall serve in their personal capacity and be independent and impartial.

3. As stipulated in article 26, paragraphs 2 and 3, members of the Committee on Enforced Disappearances shall be elected by the States parties to the Convention, and the initial election of members of the Committee shall be held no later than six months after the date of entry into force of the Convention.

4. Article 26, paragraph 7, states that the Secretary-General of the United Nations shall provide the necessary means, staff and facilities for the effective performance of the functions of the Committee. Under article 39, paragraph 1, the terms provide that the Convention shall enter into force on the thirtieth day after the date of deposit of the twentieth instrument of ratification or accession. Subject to the priority that Member States give to the speedy entry into force of the Convention, it is possible to envisage that the entry into force may take place during the 2008-2009 biennium.

5. Should the Convention be adopted by the General Assembly at its sixty-first session, it is not expected that programme budget implications will arise for the 2006-2007 biennium^a in relation to the Convention. Were the Convention to enter into force during the 2008-2009 biennium, total estimated biennial requirements of US$ 1,880,600 would be as follows:

^a See Official Records of the General Assembly, Sixtieth Session, Supplement No. 6 (A/60/6/Add.1).

	United States dollars
Section 23, Human rights Staff costs, travel requirements for representatives, and staff and daily subsistence allowance	846 700
Section 2, General Assembly and Economic and Social Council affairs and conference management Conference servicing	1 024 000
Section 28 E, Administration, Geneva In connection with conference servicing	9 900
Total	1 880 600

6. The estimate is based on the assumption that the Committee will hold its first organizational meeting in 2008 and that it will hold two sessions in 2009. Other assumptions that guide the estimates include possible decisions of the Committee to plan visits to two States parties in 2009, in accordance with article 33 of the Convention. It is also assumed (on the basis of the experience of the visits carried out by other committees) that each visit will be at least of two weeks' duration, and that it will be carried out by three Committee members accompanied by four staff members and interpreters. The minimum secretariat support needed to provide substantive services to the Committee during the biennium would consist of one P-4 and one P-3 post as well as one General Service (Other Level) post.

7. The requirements are expected to be considered in the context of the proposed programme budget for the 2008-2009 biennium should the terms of paragraph 1 of article 39 be met.

8. Accordingly, no additional appropriation for the 2006-2007 biennium will be required as a result of the adoption of the Convention by the General Assembly.

Daily subsistence allowance staff (average of $200)	23, Human rights	11 200	11 200	22 400
Daily subsistence allowance interpreters (average of $200)	23, Human rights	11 200	11 200	22 400

* Daily subsistence allowance cost at 50 per cent for Professional posts and 65 per cent for General Service (Other Level) posts.

1/3. Open-ended Working Group on an optional protocol to the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights

1. In paragraphs 2-4 of its resolution 1/3, the Council:

(a) Decided to extend the mandate of the Working Group for a period of two years in order to elaborate an optional protocol to the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, and in this regard requested the Chairperson of the Working Group to prepare, taking into account all views expressed during the sessions of the Working Group, a first draft optional protocol to be used as a basis for the forthcoming negotiations;

(b) Requested the Working Group to meet for 10 working days each year and to report to the Council;

(c) Decided to invite a representative of the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights to attend these meetings as a resource person.

2. It is estimated that the two 10-day sessions of the Working Group would require provisions for travel and daily subsistence allowance of representatives and conference servicing, at full costs, in the 2006-2007 biennium as follows:

	United States dollars
Section 2, General Assembly and Economic and Social Council affairs and conference management	794 400
Section 23, Human rights	23 200
Section 28E, Administration, Geneva	13 200
Total	830 800

3. Resources related to the extension of the mandate and the meetings of the Working Group called for in paragraphs 2 and 3 of the resolution have been included under section 2, General Assembly and Economic and Social Council affairs and conference management, and section 28E, Administration, Geneva, of the programme budget for the 2006-2007 biennium. Hence, adoption of the resolution will not entail additional conference-servicing requirements.

4. With regard to paragraphs 3 and 4 of the resolution, the activities envisaged hereunder would require provisions for travel and daily subsistence allowance for the Chairperson of the Working Group and for the representative of the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, respectively. Total costs of such requirements would amount to US$ 23,200 under section 23, Human rights, of the programme budget for the 2006-2007 biennium. The related costs for the travel and daily subsistence allowance will be absorbed within overall resources approved for section 23, Human rights, of that programme budget.

1/4. The right to development

1. In paragraphs 2-4, 6 and 7 of its resolution 1/4, the Council:

(a) Decided to renew the mandate of the Working Group on the Right to Development for a period of one year;

(b) Requested the high-level task force on the implementation of the right to development to meet for a period of five working days before the end of 2006 with a view to implementing the relevant recommendations contained in the report of the seventh session of the Working Group (E/CN.4/2006/26);

(c) Requested the Working Group to meet for a period of five working days in the first three months of 2007;

(d) Requested the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights to take all the necessary measures and allocate the necessary resources for the effective implementation of resolution 1/4;

(e) Decided to consider the next report of the Working Group at its session in March/April 2007.

2. It is estimated that requirements for conference services, travel and daily subsistence allowance of US$ 478,000 will arise for the 2006-2007 biennium.

3. Resources for conference services and the Working Group's travel costs have been included under section 2, General Assembly and Economic and Social Council affairs and conference management, section 23, Human rights, and section 28E, Administration, Geneva, of the programme budget for the 2006-2007 biennium for the Working Group to meet for a period of five working days per year. Were the Working Group to meet for additional periods, additional travel requirements might arise under section 23, Human rights, of the programme budget. The Secretariat will to the extent possible absorb within existing resources the requirements of the Working Group.

4. The provisions of General Assembly resolution 45/248 B of 21 December 1990 are also to be recalled, in section VI of which the Assembly reaffirmed that administrative and budgetary matters should be dealt with by the Fifth Committee and the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions.

1/5. Intergovernmental Working Group on the effective implementation of the Durban Declaration and Programme of Action

1. In paragraphs 2-5 of its resolution 1/5, the Council:

(a) Requested the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights to select, in close consultation with regional groups, five highly qualified experts to study the content and scope of the substantive gaps in the existing international instruments to combat racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance. The group of experts, in consultation with human rights treaty bodies, the Special Rapporteur on contemporary forms of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance and other relevant mandate holders, should produce a base document that contains concrete recommendations on the means or avenues to bridge these gaps, including but not limited to the drafting of a new protocol to the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination or the adoption of new instruments such as conventions or declarations;

(b) Requested the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination to conduct a further study on possible measures to strengthen the implementation of the Convention through additional recommendations or the update of its monitoring procedures;

(c) Decided that both documents should be presented to the Working Group at its fifth session;

(d) Decided to extend the mandate of the Working Group for a further period of three years.

2. It is estimated that requirements of US$ 579,800 will arise for the 2006-2007 biennium as follows: under section 2, General Assembly and Economic and Social affairs and conference management, US$ 372,700 for conference services; under section 23, Human rights, US$ 200,500 for travel and daily subsistence allowance for five experts and general temporary assistance for six months to assist the five experts; and under section 28E, Administration, Geneva, US$ 6,600 for conference services. Requirements of US$ 758,700 are also expected to arise for conference services in the 2008-2009 biennium.

3. Resources for conference-servicing costs related to the extension of the mandate of the Working Group have been included under section 2, General Assembly and Economic and Social affairs and conference management, and section 28E, Administration, Geneva, of the programme budget for the 2006-2007 biennium.

4. Provision of US$ 200,500 has, however, not been made under section 23, Human rights, of the 2006-2007 programme budget to cover the travel and daily subsistence allowance for five experts and general temporary assistance for six months to assist the five experts. It is anticipated that these requirements can be absorbed within existing resources under section 23, Human rights. Accordingly it is anticipated that no request for additional appropriations will arise in the 2006-2007 biennium.

5. With regard to the requirements for the 2008-2009 biennium, they will be considered in the context of the proposed programme budget for the 2008-2009 biennium.

1/102. Extension by the Human Rights Council of all mandates, mechanisms, functions and responsibilities of the Commission on Human Rights

1. In paragraphs 1-2 and 3 (b) of the text of its decision 1/102, the Council:

(a) Decided to extend exceptionally for one year, subject to the review to be undertaken by the Council in conformity with General Assembly resolution 60/251 of 15 March 2006, the mandates and the mandate holders of all the special procedures of the Commission on Human Rights, of the Sub-Commission on the Promotion and Protection of Human Rights as well as the procedure established in accordance with Economic and Social Council resolution 1503 (XLVIII) of 27 May 1970, as listed in the annex to decision 1/102;

(b) Requested the special procedures, the Sub-Commission and the procedure established in accordance with Economic and Social Council resolution 1503 (XLVIII) to continue with the implementation of their mandates and the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights to continue to provide the necessary support to them;

(c) Decided that the final session of the Sub-Commission shall be convened starting 31 July 2006 for a period of up to four weeks, if so decided by the Sub-Commission, including its pre-sessional and in-sessional working groups, and shall give due priority to preparing:

(i) A paper on the Sub-Commission's record that gives its own vision and recommendations for future expert advice to the Council, to be submitted to the Council in 2006;

(ii) A detailed list describing the status of all the Sub-Commission's ongoing studies as well as an overall review of its activities, to be submitted to the Council in 2006.

2. As budgetary provisions have already been made in the programme budget for the 2006-2007 biennium, the Secretariat will absorb requirements for activities related to the various human rights mandates listed in the annex to decision 1/102. These fall under section 2, General Assembly and Economic and Social Council affairs and conference management, section 23, Human rights, and section 28E, Administration, Geneva, of the programme budget. Hence, no additional appropriations are required at this time.

1/103. Universal periodic review

1. In paragraphs 1, 2 and 4 of the text of its decision 1/103, the Council:

(a) Decided to establish an intersessional open-ended intergovernmental working group to develop the modalities of the universal periodic review mechanism;

(b) Decided that the Working Group shall have at its disposal 10 days (or 20 three-hour meetings) of fully serviced meetings; and

(c) Decided that informal consultations could begin immediately through an open-ended consultative process in order to compile proposals and relevant information and experiences, to facilitate open-ended discussions appropriately scheduled by the Chairperson with the involvement of all stakeholders.

2. Total full costs of conference servicing, travel and daily subsistence allowance requirements envisaged in connection with preparation and organization of the meetings of the Working Group will amount to US$ 370,300 in the 2006-2007 biennium as follows:

	United States dollars
Section 2, General Assembly and Economic and Social Council affairs and conference management	330 900
Section 28E, Administration, Geneva	6 600
Section 23, Human rights	32 800
Total	370 300

3. Provision already exists in section 2, General Assembly and Economic and Social Council affairs and conference management, of the programme budget for the 2006-2007 biennium, in respect of conference costs. As regards the residual costs of US$ 39,400, it is anticipated that these can be absorbed within existing provisions for section 23, Human rights, and section 28E, Administration, Geneva. Accordingly, it is anticipated that no request for additional appropriations will arise.

1/104. Implementation of paragraph 6 of General Assembly resolution 60/251

1. In paragraphs 1-2 and 4-6 of the text of its decision 1/104, the Council:

(a) Decided to establish an open-ended intergovernmental working group to formulate concrete recommendations on the issue of reviewing and, where necessary, improving and rationalizing all mandates, mechanisms, functions and responsibilities as assumed by the Council from the Commission on Human Rights;

(b) Decided that the Working Group shall have at its disposal 20 days (or 40 three-hour meetings) of fully serviced meetings, and that it shall allow sufficient time and flexibility for the fulfilment of its mandate;

(c) Decided that informal consultations could begin immediately through an open-ended consultative process in order to compile proposals and relevant information and experiences, to facilitate open-ended discussions appropriately scheduled by the Chairperson with the involvement of all stakeholders;

(d) Requested the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights to provide the Working Group with background information on the functioning of the mandates and mechanisms and to compile the contributions of all stakeholders, including the inputs of the special procedures, the Sub-Commission on the Promotion and Protection of Human Rights and non-governmental organizations;

(e) Requested the Working Group to report regularly to the Council, starting in September 2006, on progress made to allow for the completion of the review, as requested in paragraph 6 of General Assembly resolution 60/251.

2. Total full costs of conference servicing, travel and daily subsistence allowance requirements envisaged under decision 1/104 will amount to US$ 738,600 in the programme budget for the 2006-2007 biennium as follows:

	United States dollars
Section 2, General Assembly and Economic and Social Council affairs and conference management	692 700
Section 28E, Administration, Geneva	13 100
Section 23, Human rights	32 800
Total	738 600

3. Provision already exists in section 2, General Assembly and Economic and Social Council affairs and conference management, of the programme budget for the 2006-2007 biennium, in respect of conference costs. As regards the residual costs of US$ 45,900, it is anticipated that these can be absorbed within existing provisions for section 23, Human rights, and section 28E, Administration, Geneva. Accordingly, it is anticipated that no request for additional appropriations will arise.

1/106. Human rights situation in Palestine and other occupied Arab territories

1. In paragraphs 1 and 2 of the text of its decision 1/106, the Council:

(a) Requested the relevant special rapporteurs to report to its next session on the Israeli human rights violations in occupied Palestine;

(b) Decided to undertake substantive consideration of the human rights violations and implications of the Israeli occupation of Palestine and other occupied Arab territories at its next session and to incorporate this issue in following sessions.

2. Total full costs of travel, daily subsistence allowance and general operating expenses during field missions envisaged under decision 1/106 will amount to US$ 97,700. Provisions for these activities have been included under the programme budget for the 2006-2007 biennium. Hence, no additional appropriation will be required for these activities.

1/PRST/1. Entry into force of the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment

1. Under the terms of its paragraphs 1 and 3, President's statement 1/PRST/1:

(a) Welcomed the entry into force on 22 June 2006 of the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment, following ratification by 20 States;

(b) Requested the Secretary-General to ensure, within the overall budgetary framework of the United Nations, the provision of adequate staff and facilities for the bodies and mechanisms involved in combating torture and assisting victims of torture commensurate with the strong support expressed by Member States for combating torture and assisting victims of torture.

2. Part I, article 2, paragraph 1, of the Optional Protocol states that a Subcommittee on Prevention of Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment of the Committee against Torture (hereinafter referred to as the Subcommittee on Prevention) shall be established and shall carry out the functions laid down in the Protocol. In accordance with part II, article 5, the Subcommittee on Prevention shall consist of 10 members; after the fiftieth ratification of or accession to the Protocol, the number of the members of the Subcommittee on Prevention shall increase to 25; the members of the Subcommittee on Prevention shall serve in their individual capacity.

3. Part II, article 10, paragraphs 2-3, of the Optional Protocol provide that the Subcommittee on Prevention shall establish its own rules of procedure and that after its initial meeting, the Subcommittee shall meet at such times as provided by its rules of procedure.

4. In part VI, article 25, paragraph 1, the Optional Protocol states that expenditures incurred by the Subcommittee on Prevention in the implementation of the Protocol shall be borne by the United Nations. Paragraph 2 of the same article states that the Secretary-General of the United Nations shall provide the necessary staff and facilities for the effective performance of the functions of the Subcommittee under the Protocol.

5. In accordance with part II, article 7 (b), of the Optional Protocol the initial election to the Subcommittee on Prevention should be held not later than six months after the entry into force of the Protocol, i.e. before 22 December 2006.

6. Programme budget implications will arise for the 2006-2007 biennium. It is estimated that requirements of approximately US$ 2,373,300 (net of staff assessment) will arise for the regular budget. This estimate is based on the assumption that the Subcommittee on Prevention will consist of 10 members, that it will hold its first organizational meeting in December 2006 and that it will hold three sessions in 2007, each of one week's duration. As there are presently 20 States parties, it is estimated that the Subcommittee may undertake four missions yearly in 2007 and keep to a periodicity of visits to each State party to one visit every five years. It is also assumed (on the basis of the experience of the visits carried out by the Committee against Torture to States parties to the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment) that each mission will require approximately 8 to 12 weeks' preparatory work and be of at least two weeks' duration each, and require four to eight weeks' post-session work including the drafting of reports. It is also expected that follow-up missions will require approximately four to six weeks' preparatory work plus a three-day mission and two to four weeks' post-session work, including the drafting of reports. Each mission is expected to consist of members, experts, staff and interpreters, if required.

7. The minimum secretariat support needed to provide substantive services to the Subcommittee on Prevention will consist of one P-4, two P-3 and one General Service post as of 2007.

8. In 2002, at the time of the adoption of the Optional Protocol, the programme budget implications statement (A/C.3/57/L.42) estimated requirements of US$ 2,082,700. Consequently, the current estimate of US$ 2,373,300 (net) reflects modifications of the requirements identified in that statement based on recent experience.

9. The estimated requirements of US$ 2,373,300 (net of staff assessment) or US$ 2,420,400 (gross) are summarized as follows:

	United States dollars
	2006	2007	2006-2007
1. Conference services
Section 2, General Assembly and Economic and Social Council affairs and conference management	194 800	1 347 600	1 542 400
Section 28E, Administration, Geneva	700	3 300	4 000
Subtotal	195 500	1 350 900	1 546 400
2. Section 23, Human rights
Staff costs (one P-4, two P-3, one General Service)		278 900	278 900
Travel of representatives		391 000	391 000
Travel of staff and other travel		113 600	113 600
Office automation equipment		9 200	9 200
Subtotal		792 700	792 700
3. Section 28E, Administration, Geneva
General operating expenses		23 600	23 600
Furniture and fixtures		10 600	10 600
Subtotal		34 200	34 200
4. Section 35, Staff assessment		47 100	47 100
5. Income from staff assessment		(47 100)	(47 100)
Total requirements	195 500	2 177 800	2 373 300

10. Provision already exists in section 2, General Assembly and Economic and Social Council affairs and conference management, in respect of conference costs. Provisions are, however, required for the 2006-2007 biennium for activities of the Subcommittee on Prevention as follows: US$ 792,700 under section 23, Human rights; US$ 38,200 under section 28E, Administration, Geneva, and US$ 47,100 under section 35, Staff assessment, offset by US$ 47,100 under income from staff assessment, income section 1.

11. It will be recalled that under the procedures established by the General Assembly in its resolutions 41/213 of 19 December 1986 and 42/211 of 21 December 1987, a contingency fund is established for each biennium to accommodate additional expenditures derived from legislative mandates not provided for in the programme budget. Under this procedure, if additional expenditures are proposed that exceed the resources available from the contingency fund, the activities concerned can be implemented only through the redeployment of resources from low-priority areas or the modification of existing activities. Otherwise, such additional activities must be deferred to a later biennium.

12. The additional provisions cannot be met from the contingency fund as other activities in the 2006-2007 biennium charged against the fund are expected to exhaust the fund prior to the sixty-first session of the General Assembly. It is not possible at this stage to identify activities under section 23, Human rights, and section 28E, Administration, Geneva, of the programme budget for the 2006-2007 biennium that could be curtailed, deferred, terminated, or modified in order to meet the net additional requirement of US$ 830,900 although preliminary review leads the Secretariat to assume that some absorption of the estimated requirements is possible. The Secretariat will seek in the coming months to identify areas from which resources can be redeployed to meet the requirements for the Subcommittee on Prevention in the 2006-2007 biennium. At the time the Assembly reviews the question of the entry into force of the Optional Protocol at its sixty-first session, it is anticipated that sufficient time would have elapsed to be able to inform the Assembly of how to meet the additional requirements.

13. The provisions of General Assembly resolution 45/248 B of 21 December 1990 are also to be recalled, in section VI of which the Assembly reaffirmed that the Fifth Committee was the appropriate main committee of the Assembly entrusted with responsibilities for administrative and budgetary matters, and also reaffirmed the role of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions.

2. The activity envisaged under paragraph 6 of the resolution consists of a mission of the Special Rapporteur to the occupied Palestinian territories, accompanied by four staff members of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights and two Security Officers to support the mission.
3. The estimated costs for the year 2006 under section 23, Human rights, would amount to US$ 27,300.
4. No provisions have been made under the programme budget for the 2006-2007 biennium for the above activity. It is anticipated, however, that the costs could be absorbed within overall resources included in the programme budget for this biennium under section 23, Human rights.^a

Part Three

Report of the Human Rights Council on its second special session

I. Resolution adopted by the Council at its second special session

S-2/1. The grave situation of human rights in Lebanon caused by Israeli military operations

The Human Rights Council,

Reaffirming the purposes and principles contained in the Charter of the United Nations,

Reaffirming also the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the Vienna Declaration and Programme of Action, and recalling the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, the Convention on the Rights of the Child and other human rights instruments,

Acknowledging that peace and security, development and human rights are the pillars of the United Nations system,

Recalling General Assembly resolution 60/251 of 15 March 2006 in which the Assembly decided that the Human Rights Council:

(a) Should address situations of violations of human rights, including gross and systematic violations, and make recommendations thereon; and

(b) Shall respond promptly to human rights emergencies,

Guided by the Charter of the United Nations, relevant human rights instruments and international humanitarian law, in particular the Hague Conventions of 1899 and 1907 on the Laws and Customs of War on Land which prohibit attacks and bombardment of civilian populations and objects and lay down obligations for general protection against dangers arising from military operations against civilian objects, hospitals, relief materials and means of transportation,

Recalling the commitments of the High Contracting Parties to the Geneva Conventions of 12 August 1949 and the Additional Protocols thereto of 8 June 1977,

Reaffirming that each High Contracting Party to the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War (Fourth Geneva Convention) is under obligation to take action against persons alleged to have committed or to have ordered the commission of grave breaches of the Convention, and recalling the Convention on the Non-Applicability of Statutory Limitations to War Crimes and Crimes against Humanity,

Emphasizing that human rights law and international humanitarian law are complementary and mutually reinforcing,

Stressing that the right to life constitutes the most fundamental of all human rights,

Condemning Israeli military operations in Lebanon, which constitute gross and systematic human rights violations of the Lebanese people,

Appalled at the massive violations of the human rights of the people of Lebanon by Israel resulting in the massacre of thousands of civilians, injuries, extensive damage to civilian infrastructure, displacement of one million people, and outflows of refugees fleeing heavy shelling and bombardment against the civilian population,

Strongly condemning the indiscriminate and massive Israeli air strikes, in particular on the village of Qana on 30 July 2006, and the targeting of United Nations peacekeepers at the United Nations observer post in southern Lebanon on 25 July 2006,

Taking note of the strong condemnation by the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights of the killing of civilians in Qana, her call to take measures to protect civilian lives and civilian objects and her reiteration of the need for independent investigation, with the involvement of international experts,

Noting the extreme concern expressed by the Representative of the Secretary-General on human rights of internally displaced persons, the Special Rapporteur on extrajudicial, summary or arbitrary executions, the Special Rapporteur on the right of everyone to the enjoyment of the highest attainable standard of physical and mental health, the Special Rapporteur on adequate housing as a component of the right to an adequate standard of living, and the Special Rapporteur on the right to food about the continuing adverse impact on the human rights and the humanitarian situation of the civilian population in Lebanon,

Emphasizing that attacks and killings of innocent civilians and the destruction of houses, property and infrastructure in Lebanon are a breach of the principles of the Charter of the United Nations, international law and international humanitarian law as well as flagrant violations of human rights,

Recognizing the urgent need to address the dire humanitarian situation in Lebanon, including through the immediate lifting of the blockade of Lebanon imposed by Israel,

Noting with concern the environmental degradation caused by Israeli strikes against power plants and their adverse impact on health,

Concerned at the targeting of the communication and media networks in Lebanon,

Outraged at the continuing senseless killings by Israel, with impunity, of children, women, the elderly and other civilians in Lebanon,

1. Strongly condemns the grave Israeli violations of human rights and breaches of international humanitarian law in Lebanon;

2. Condemns the massive bombardment of Lebanese civilian populations, especially the massacres in Qana, Marwaheen, Al Duweir, Al Bayadah, Al Qaa, Chiyah, Ghazieh and other towns of Lebanon, causing thousands of deaths and injuries, mostly among children and women, and the displacement of one million civilians, according to a preliminary assessment, thus exacerbating the magnitude of the human suffering of the Lebanese;

3. Also condemns the Israeli bombardment of vital civilian infrastructure resulting in extensive destruction and heavy damage to public and private properties;

4. Calls upon Israel to abide, immediately and scrupulously, by its obligations under human rights law, in particular the Convention on the Rights of the Child, and international humanitarian law;

5. Urges all concerned parties to respect the rules of international humanitarian law, to refrain from violence against the civilian population and to treat under all circumstances all detained combatants and civilians in accordance with the Geneva Conventions of 12 August 1949;

6. Calls upon Israel to stop immediately military operations against the civilian population and civilian objects resulting in death and destruction and serious violations of human rights;

7. Decides to establish urgently and immediately dispatch a high-level commission of inquiry comprising eminent experts on human rights law and international humanitarian law, and including the possibility of inviting the relevant United Nations special procedures to be nominated to the Commission:

(a) To investigate the systematic targeting and killings of civilians by Israel in Lebanon;

(b) To examine the types of weapons used by Israel and their conformity with international law;

(c) To assess the extent and deadly impact of Israeli attacks on human life, property, critical infrastructure and the environment;

8. Requests the Secretary-General and the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights to provide all administrative, technical and logistical assistance required to enable the Commission of Inquiry to fulfil its mandate promptly and efficiently;

9. Calls upon the international community urgently to provide the Government of Lebanon with humanitarian and financial assistance to enable it to deal with the worsening humanitarian disaster, rehabilitation of victims, return of displaced persons and restoration of the essential infrastructure;

10. Requests the Commission of Inquiry to report to the Council no later than 1 September 2006 on progress made towards the fulfilment of its mandate.

*3rd meeting
11 August 2006*

ANNEXES

ANNEX I

Administrative and programme budget implications of the resolution adopted by the Council at its second special session

1. In paragraphs 7, 8 and 10 of resolution S-2/1, the Council decided:
 - (a) To establish urgently and immediately dispatch a high-level commission of inquiry comprising eminent experts on human rights and international humanitarian law including the possibility of inviting the relevant United Nations special procedures to:
 - (i) Investigate the systematic targeting and killing by Israel of civilians in Lebanon;
 - (ii) Examine the types of weapons used by Israel and their conformity with international law;
 - (iii) Assess the extent and deadly impact of Israeli attacks on human life, property, critical infrastructure and environment;
 - (b) To request the Secretary-General and the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights to provide all administrative, technical and logistical assistance required to enable the Commission of Inquiry to fulfil its mandate promptly and efficiently;
 - (c) To request the Commission of Inquiry to report to the Council no later than 1 September 2006 on progress made towards the fulfilment of its mandate.
2. Total full costs of the activities envisaged would amount to US$ 417,800 under section 23, Human rights, of the programme budget for the 2006-2007 biennium.^a
3. It will be recalled that under the procedures established by the General Assembly in its resolutions 41/213 of 19 December 1986 and 42/211 of 21 December 1987, a contingency fund is established for each biennium to accommodate additional expenditures derived from legislative mandates not provided for in the programme budget. Under this procedure, if additional expenditures are proposed that exceed the resources available from the contingency fund, the activities concerned can be implemented only through the redeployment of resources from low-priority areas or the modification of existing activities. Otherwise, such additional activities must be deferred to a later biennium.
4. The additional provisions cannot be met from the contingency fund, as other activities in the 2006-2007 biennium charged against the fund are expected to exhaust the contingency fund prior to the sixty-first session of the General Assembly. It is not possible at this stage to identify activities under section 23, Human rights, of the programme budget for the 2006-2007 biennium that could be curtailed, deferred, terminated or modified in order to meet the net additional requirement of US$ 417,800 although preliminary review leads the Secretariat to assume that some absorption of the estimated requirements is possible. The Secretariat will seek in the coming months to identify areas from which resources can be redeployed to meet the requirements for the Commission of Inquiry in the 2006-2007 biennium. At the time the Assembly reviews the question of the Commission of Inquiry at its sixty-first session, it is anticipated that sufficient time would have elapsed to be able to inform the Assembly of how to meet the additional requirements.
